Senior Full-Stack Engineer

Singular is the next-gen attribution and marketing analytics platform, giving marketers actionable insights from previously siloed data. By collecting, aggregating and normalizing upper-funnel campaign marketing data from thousands of channels and connecting it to lower-funnel attribution data, marketers can measure ROI from every touchpoint across all their activities and optimize to the most granular level. We have raised $50M from Norwest Venture Partners, General Catalyst, Thomvest Ventures, Method Capital, Translink Capital, DCM and Telstra Ventures. Our business and team are scaling, and we are looking for ambitious, eager, creative and innovative individuals to join us and help us reach the next level. We have great customers, including leading companies like Lyft, Warner Bros, Airbnb, Yelp, LinkedIn, Microsoft, Zynga and Match. Now is the time to join Singular! We have an amazing product, a strong team and happy customers in a growing market, offering a unique opportunity for an engineer to join our top-notch teams to build new products!

About The Role

We are looking for a top-notch Senior Full Stack Engineer who will work on our next first-to-market products and create elegant solutions using the latest technologies. This position will be based in our R&D office in the heart of Tel-Aviv.

In this role, you will be responsible for designing, developing and maintaining end-to-end (client and server) features and web applications. You will work closely with our design and product teams to translate their requirements into functional, user-friendly features. We deeply encourage our engineers to develop a deep understanding of our industry and our customers and growth in their engineering skills. You will also have the chance to work in one of the most professional R&D teams in the startup community and grow professionally.

Our Stack: React.JS, Python, Django, MySQL, AWS, Redis, Druid, Snowflake, and more!

What you bring

The ideal candidate is a full-stack engineer that brings a rare mix of big-picture thinking, responsibility and hands-on execution. Independent, responsible, fast learner, and enjoys working in a fast-paced, growth environment.

5+ years of hands-on experience as a software engineer with frontend and backend development.

Proficiency in modern frontend development frameworks such as React, Angular, Vue.js.

Experience with backend development technologies such as Python, Java, or Node.js.

Experience with database technologies such as MySQL, PostgreSQL, Redis, etc.
